TRADE NOTICE NO. 01/2017-18

Sub: Constitution of Anti-Profiteering Screening Committee at the Union Territory Level (Daman & Diu and Union territories of Dadra & Nagar Haveli)-regd.

The Directorate General of Safeguards (CEEC), New Delhi vide letter dated 08.11.2017 has clarified that as per Section 2 (103) of the CGST Act, 2017 "State" includes a Union territory with legislature. "Union Territory" has been defined under Section 2 (114) of the CGST Act, 2017. But the Union Territories of Dadra & Nagar Haveli and Daman & Diu do not have legislatures, they do not fall within the above definition of "State" and hence, Screening Committees of these Union territories cannot be constituted under Rule 123(2) of the CGST Rules, 2017. However, as these Union territories are administered by the Central Government, anti-profiteering applications from these Union territories, involving even issues of local nature, can be directly examined by the Standing Committee on anti-profiteering. In such cases, the jurisdictional Chief Commissioner of GST shall act as the Nodal officer who will receive such applications and forward them to the Standing Committee.

All Trade Associations /Chambers of Commerce and Members of Regional Advisory Committees are requested to publish the contents of the Circular and this Trade Notice among their Members/Constituents.

This issues with the approval of Chief Commissioner.
